SANTOS PREDICTS GREAT FUTURE FOR MANHATTAN

S. P. Santos, one of the old-timers of Tonopah, but of late years a resident of Manhattan, was in from that camp yesterday. Mr. Santos is very enthusiastic over the prospects of Manhattan and believes that before the winter is over there will be some doings there.

At the present time, Mr. Santos says, the two mills of the camp are running and it is estimated that they are turning out over $30,000 a month in bullion.
